

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING Between

Name & Country of Partner Institution

And

The Curators of the University of Missouri for the University of Missouri (MU), USA

Whereas the above named institutions recognize that a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) would be of mutual benefit and would serve as an indication of continued interest in cooperation, it is understood that:

1. Each institution will encourage the exchange of faculty for joint teaching and research programs.
2. Each institution will encourage the enrollment of qualified students in the other's academic programs. Each student involved in these programs will be subject to the admission requirements and tuition and fees of the host university, or the admission requirements enumerated in supplements to this agreement.
3. Data and research findings relating to this MOU, and ownership of any patent rights, copyrights, and other intellectual property rights to any discoveries, inventions, and products resulting from this agreement will be determined based on the contributions of the participants.
4. Faculty from each institution will collaborate in producing proposals for external funding as appropriate.
5. A separate agreement shall be negotiated and executed for any research or intellectual property developed as a result of this collaboration.
6. Any expenses incurred by each institution under this agreement will be the sole responsibility of the divisions of the institution, as enumerated in supplements to this agreement.
7. The point of contact for the University of Missouri will be: name, title, email address of MU faculty or staff liaison. The point of contact for partner university will be name, title, and email address of point of contact. These individuals will monitor collaborative activities and provide occasional reports to university officials upon request.
8. This MOU will become effective on the final date of signing and will have duration of five years. It can be revised or amended with mutual consent. Either institution can terminate this agreement with 90-day written notice.
9. In the event that either party terminates the agreement, the host institution shall honor the terms of the agreement for participants whose programs have been approved prior to termination, as if the agreement remained in force of the period of each program.
